

STARTUP

VILLAGE

Femmie Geradts Builder & connector

A self-starter with an entrepreneurial mindset, the perfect mix for Startup Village.

Femmie has a track record in leading marketing roles within big corporates like Philips and LYCOS and she ran her own agency for 10 years.

As an expert in driving innovation and in building business models, her focus is to transform Startup Village to a strong tech community of startups and network partners.

“I love the mindset and perseverance of startups, we are there to support them and bring in the enthusiasm it takes”.

Femmie holds a bachelor’s degree in International Business at Amsterdam University of applied science and University of Brighton (UK).
